

Governor's Request to the Sex Offender Policy Board: Tracking Log

Governor's Request	SOPB Progress	SOPB Next Steps	SOPB Timeline
1. Provide summaries of Washington State's current SORN statutes and practices to assist policymakers in evaluating proposed legislative changes.	-Fact Sheets -WSU Survey of local law enforcement	-Publish fact sheets -Complete survey and discuss results	Fall 2016
2. Evaluate Washington State's SORN statutes and the SORNA established under Title I of the AWA of 2006 to determine which requirements the state has yet to adopt.	-SORNA Adherence Chart	COMPLETED	COMPLETED
3. Survey other states to determine how they have aligned their systems to meet the requirements of SORNA.	-Little to no information is available unless the SOPB seeks information from each individual state	COMPLETED	COMPLETED
4. Offer recommendations as to how the state should proceed in moving further into compliance with SORNA or, if the SOPB determines that it is not in the best interest of the state to adopt a requirement of SORNA, offer an analysis as to why.	-SORNA Adherence Chart	-Determine which areas to recommend that state move towards further compliance in -Provide brief report and analyses for reasoning of why or why not to seek compliance	Summer 2016
5. Offer recommendations as to other changes in SORN statutes that further advance the safety of the public.	-Preliminary discussions, SOPB to discuss previous report recommendations	-SOPB to discuss on May 20 th , 2016	Summer 2016
6. Offer recommendations as to other issues related to sexual offending that the SOPB determines could advance the safety of the public through further study.	-Preliminary discussions, SOPB to discuss at the next meeting.	-SOPB to discuss on May 20 th , 2016	Summer 2016