

Peace Community Center
(A Partner of the Washington Service Corps)

Peace Community Center provides tutoring, academic mentoring and support services to children and young adults in Tacoma's Hilltop community from the time they enter elementary school through the completion of a post-secondary degree. Twelve AmeriCorps members provide in-school support services and after school tutoring and mentoring to students throughout the school year. Members will serve in partnership with Jason Lee Middle School, McCarver Elementary School, and Peace Community Center.
