¹The North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) was developed jointly by the U.S., Canada, and Mexico. It is a comprehensive classification system which groups establishments into industries based on their primary activities, both goods producing and services providing. NAICS replaced the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) system.

²Services Providing includes Government.
