

Washington State Roadmap Business Initiatives

For the Transformation of Financial and Administrative Policies, Processes, Data and Systems

This document is subject to change.

Business Value

- Better information, better results
 - Enterprise-wide financial information to support priorities of government
 - Increased accountability to citizens
 - Flexibility to respond to new business needs
- Better information, better results
 - More strategic asset management
 - Improved accountability for state assets
- Optimized return on investments
- Better information, better results
 - Real costs of government services
 - Improved accountability for state assets
- More economical government
 - Lower cost of goods & services
 - Reduced inventories - less cash on the shelf
- Better business relationships
- More economical government
 - Faster, better, cheaper business processes
 - Reduced number/costs of "shadow" systems
- Better information, better results
- Better business relationships
- Optimized return on investment
- Better information, better results
 - Access to the right information at the right time
 - Richer data stores (budget, HR, procurement, operations, performance)
- Shared agreement on enterprise best business practices
 - Policies
 - Business processes
 - Chart of Accounts and data
- Strategy to support integration of current environment with future initiatives

Business Drivers | Business Initiative | Current | Planned | Completed

Visit the Roadmap website: <http://www.ofm.wa.gov/roadmap>

Business Initiative Chart
Last Updated: Sept 11, 2008