

Apple Corps (A Partner of the Washington Service Corps)

Apple Corps addresses food insecurity, obesity and other nutrition-related, preventable diseases by increasing access to healthy foods and engaging youth and families in the practice and awareness of good nutrition, physical activity and healthy lifestyle habits.

Hosted by Solid Ground, the AmeriCorps members serving with Apple Corps collaborate with schools, community groups and local organizations to educate children about nutrition and physical activity, improve policies affecting child health, and connect families to health-promoting resources.
