

City Year Seattle-King County

City Year, an AmeriCorps program, is a national service organization that unites young adults, ages 17 to 24, from diverse racial, cultural educational, and socioeconomic backgrounds for a demanding year of full-time community service, leadership development and civic engagement. City Year corps members will serve on diverse teams tutoring and mentoring elementary, middle, and high school students throughout Seattle and King County. The corps will also participate in leadership development activities and lead volunteers in transformative community service projects.
