

Environmental Outreach and Stewardship (EOS) Alliance (A Partner of the Washington Service Corps)

The Environmental Outreach and Stewardship Alliance (EOS Alliance) was founded in May of 2000 as the Northwest Environmental Education Council. The Mission of EOS is to foster an ecologically sustainable world. EOS provides green service opportunities in the areas of habitat restoration, civic leadership training, youth environmental education, and technical environmental training.

AmeriCorps members serve as sustainability project coordinators within the Puget Sound Sustainability Corps. Members serve on projects that improve human health and environmental sustainability within King, Pierce, and Snohomish Counties. Members serve in partnership with diverse government, nonprofit community groups, and volunteers to achieve program objectives related to resource conservation, biodiversity and climate change.
