MEMORANDUM
TO: SGC
FROM: Jean Soliz-Conklin
RE: Rulemaking Process – Community Custody Ranges, etc.

December 12, 2008

ACTION REQUESTED: The Commission is asked to provide comments on proposals to revise the chapters of the Washington Administrative Code under SGC authority.

Background
The SGC is required to enact a rule adopting a community custody range for an offense involving the unlawful possession of a firearm under RCW 9.41.040, where the offender is a criminal street gang member or associate. (E2SHB 2712).

Staff was also directed to review the SGC administrative rules to update them as needed. The current WACs are 437-06 Public Records—Disclosure; 437-10 Bylaws; and 437-20 Community Custody Ranges.

The rulemaking process takes at lease four months; and careful adherence to publication and hearing requirements is required.

Proposals
1. Community Custody
An ad hoc committee was appointed by the Chairman to recommend a community custody range. The committee members are Eldon Vail, Russ Hauge and Lenell Nussbaum.

The committee met and proposed a new range of 9-18 months to be added to WAC 437-20-010.

2. Public Disclosure
Staff counsel Shannon Hinchcliffe reviewed the SGC rules and researched the laws related to public disclosure and open meetings.

Staff proposes that the rules be updated to correct references and simplified the language in the Public Disclosure rules.
3. Bylaws
There is no statutory requirement that the Commission promulgate rules with its bylaws. The current rules are out-of-date in relation to the Open Public Meetings Act.

Staff proposes that this chapter be removed from rules and that the SGC adopt revised bylaws early in 2009, before the rules revisions take effect.

The full text of the rules with proposed changes is attached.
WAC TIMELINE

Dec. 24 - File CR-101 – we can file this anytime. The following timeline is for a CR 101 that is filed before noon on December 24th.

Jan. 7 - CR-101 is published in WSR #09-01.

Jan. 9 - can discuss proposed text of rules (CR-102) at SGC meeting.

Can file a CR-102 anytime after Feb 6, 2009. The text of CR-102, the agency’s proposed rule, should be as close to the adopted rule as possible.

Feb. 13 - can discuss proposed text of rules (CR-102) at SGC meeting.

March 4 - CR-102 will be published in WSR 09-05 on March 4, 2009.

May hold public hearing anytime after March 24, 2009.

April 10 - Public hearing could be held at April 10, 2009 SGC Commission meeting. A rule-making order or CR-103 could potentially be made at this meeting if there are no substantial changes.

The rule would then become effective 31 days from filing the CR-103 with the code reviser.

The ranges specified in this section are not intended to affect or limit the authority to impose exceptional community custody ranges, either above or below the standard community custody range as authorized by RCW 9.94A.120(2) and pursuant to guidelines specified in RCW 9.94A.390. The community custody range for offenders with multiple convictions must be based on the offense that dictates the longest term of community custody. The community custody range for offenders convicted of an offense that falls into more than one of the five categories of offense types listed in this section must be based on the offense type that dictates the longest term of community custody.

437-06-020 Times for inspection and copying of records.

All public records are available for inspection and copying at the commission office during normal business hours (8:00 a.m. - 12 and 1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.). However, if these activities would interfere with essential agency functions, the agency reserves the right to require advance notice and to limit the amount of time spent on inspection of documents.
437-06-030
Public records officer.

The commission shall designate a public record officer, located in the commission office, who shall be responsible for implementing the commission's rules regarding disclosure of public records, coordinating staff in this regard, and generally ensuring compliance by the staff with public records disclosure requirements.

437-06-040
Request for public records.

According to chapter 42.56 RCW, members of the public may inspect, copy, or get copies of public records if they comply with the following procedures:

1. Make a request in writing which includes:
   (a) The name of the person requesting the record;
   (b) The time of day and calendar date on which the request is made; and
   (c) Name or describe the record(s) needed.

2. A request for disclosure shall be made during the customary business hours or by mail.

3. This chapter shall not be construed as giving authority to any agency to give, sell or provide access to lists of individuals requested for commercial purposes, and agencies shall not do so unless specifically authorized or directed by law.

4. When a person's identity is relevant to an exemption, that person may be required to provide personal identification, including photographic identification and/or fingerprints.

437-06-050
Fees — Inspection and copying.

1. No fee shall be charged for the inspection of public records.

2. The commission shall collect fees, plus postage, to reimburse itself for actual costs incident to providing copies of public records.
(a) Copies produced on copying and duplicating equipment are 15 cents per page.
(b) Copies of other items such as magnetic tapes and records on other formats will be the cost of services required to copy them.

437-06-060
Protection of public records.

Public records shall be disclosed only in the presence of a public records officer or his or her designee, who shall withdraw the records if the person requesting disclosure acts in a manner which will damage or substantially disorganize the records or interfere excessively with other essential functions of the commission. This section shall not be construed to prevent the commission from accommodating a client by use of mails in the disclosure process.

437-06-070
Disclosure procedure.

1. The public records officer shall acknowledging receipt of request within five business days. The public records officer or designee will do one or more of the following:

(a) Make the records available for inspection or copying;
(b) If copies are requested and payment of a deposit for the copies, if any, is made or terms of payment are agreed upon, send the copies to the requestor;
(c) Provide a reasonable estimate of when records will be available; or
(d) If the request is unclear or does not sufficiently identify the requested records, request clarification from the requestor. Such clarification may be requested and provided by telephone. The public records officer or designee may revise the estimate of when records will be available; or
(e) Deny the request.

2. The public records officer shall review file materials prior to disclosure.
(3) If the file does not contain materials exempt from disclosure, the public records officer shall ensure full disclosure.

(4) If the file does contain materials exempt from disclosure, the public records officer shall deny disclosure of those exempt portions of the file and will provide a written statement explaining the reason for denial. The remaining nonexempt materials shall be fully disclosed pursuant to WAC 437-06-080.

(5) The statement of denial shall include:
   (a) The specific exemption that authorizes the commission to withhold the record; and
   (b) A brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record the commission withheld.

(6) Any person continuing to seek disclosure, after having received a written explanation for nondisclosure, may request a review under the provisions of WAC 437-06-080.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 9.94A RCW 84-23-048 (Order 84-01), § 437-06-080, filed 11/19/84.]

Remeedy for review of denial of disclosure.

(1) If the person requesting disclosure disagrees with the decision of a public records officer denying disclosure of a public record, this person may within twenty days petition the commission's public records officer for review of the decision denying disclosure. The form used to deny disclosure of a public record shall clearly indicate this right of review.

(2) The public records officer shall review decisions denying disclosure in the most prompt fashion possible, and such review shall be deemed completed at the end of the second business day following receipt by the commission of the petition for review. This shall constitute final agency action for the purposes of judicial review, pursuant to RCW 42.66.020.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 9.94A RCW. 84-23-048 (Order 84-01), § 437-06-090, filed 11/19/84.]

Exemptions to public records disclosure.

The commission reserves the right to determine if a public record requested in accordance with the procedures outlined herein is exempt or nondisclosable under RCW 42.55.040 through 42.55.550. Nondisclosable records include, but are not limited to:

(1) All exemptions as set out in RCW Chapter 42.55.

(2) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which the commission is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of a pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts, including records involving attorney-client communications between the commission and the office of the attorney general privileged under RCW 5.90.060(2).
