IV. PROPOSALS FROM THE SGC JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMITTEE

The SGC created a Juvenile Justice Committee in 2008 and will present proposals on juvenile sentences for life-without-parole, adult jurisdiction over crimes by juveniles and sex offender registration requirements. Juvenile Justice Committee co-chairs were Representative Sherry Appleton and Kitsap County Juvenile Court Administrator Ned Delmore. The Commission will be asked to review recommendations and select ideas for SGC-supported legislation. Presenters will include attorneys Beth Colgan, Columbia Legal services; Fred Wist, Pierce County Prosecutor and Michelle Shaw, private defender.

V. SEX OFFENSE STATUTES OF LIMITATION

The SGC created an Ad Hoc Committee on Sex Offense Statutes of Limitation in 2008, which will make a final recommendation to the Commission regarding an extension to statutes of limitation for sex crimes in which the victim was a child.

VI. ATTORNEY GENERAL ROB MCKENNA'S SENTENCING REFORM PROPOSAL FOR REPEAT/SERIAL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OFFENDERS

David Martin, King County Prosecutor, will answer any follow-up questions from the Commission as they decide whether to support this proposal.

VII. COMMUNITY RANGE- FIREARMS AND GANG MEMBERS/ASSOCIATES

Staff will review the legislature's direction to develop a new community custody range; and propose revisions to the other SGC portions of the Washington Administrative Code.

VIII. COMMUNITY CUSTODY

The commission will review an updated concept paper on the idea of "An Evidence-Based System Of Community Custody For Adult Felons Who Do Not Go To Prison" and decide whether they are ready to submit this proposal for legislative action.

IV. Lunch

Commissioners may continue their conversation during lunch.
