

WASHINGTON'S MODERN OFFICE DESTINATION (MOD WA)

A Co-Working Experience

The state of Washington has designed the first co-working model facility in order to support the State's commitment in "Building a Modern Work Environment" and being an employer of choice. This space supports greater workplace flexibility, enables a mobile workforce, and decreases transportation greenhouse gas emissions. This is a place for any state employee to drop in and work based on business need in downtown Seattle.

GENERAL INFORMATION

LOCATION:

101 S King St
Suite 400
Seattle, WA 98104

HOURS:

6:00am-6:30pm
Mon-Fri

SERVICES:

- Wi-Fi Access
- Computer Monitors
- Printing
- Charging Stations
- Lockers

MEMBERSHIP:

Monthly – Users who occupy the space weekly or monthly.

Day Pass – One-time use for a few hours or a day. Entry access will expire at end of business day.

BUILDING ACCESS:

The co-working space is located in a secured building. MOD WA is located on the 4th floor.

Please request access by sending an email with your first and last name, agency and program, email address, and frequency of use to

WAmmodernwork@ofm.wa.gov

PARKING:

There is no designated parking. Street parking and transit are available.

Downtown parking:

<https://downtownseattle.com/parking/index.html>

Transit :

<https://www.downtownseattle.com/transportation/>