The Department of Corrections (DOC) is primarily responsible for the confinement, care, and community custody of adult offenders committed to its jurisdiction by the superior courts. DOC is one part of the state's total criminal justice system. Its activities are influenced largely by actions of the courts, the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board (ISRB), and sentencing laws. DOC applies the legal sanctions imposed by the state courts; supervises eligible offenders sentenced to community custody based on their level of risk; and manages the programs and activities of offenders sentenced to incarceration in state facilities to the extent allowed by law.

Agency Mission

The mission of the Department of Corrections is to improve public safety.
