

Black Community (BC) BUSINESS RESOURCE GROUP (BRG)

Background

On June 20, 2012, Governor Christine Gregoire signed Executive Order 12-02 to build a diverse, inclusive, and culturally competent workforce.

On February 23, 2017, Governor Jay Inslee reaffirmed his commitment to tolerance, diversity, and inclusiveness in Executive Order 17-01.

Washington State Government strives to be the Employer of Choice in Washington State where employees can bring their full and authentic selves to the workplace.

As of 2019, Black people represent 6% of executive branch employees. Data shows the representation is disproportionately higher at entry-level and diminishes as the level of the position increases.

Turnover, New Hires, and Diversity for people of color is about 20%. These numbers have remained around 20% since 2012.

Purpose

The Washington State BC BRG exists to improve the experiences of current and future Black state employees, increase representation of Black people in leadership positions, give voice to the Black perspective in policy discussions about Washington communities, and build each other up as we move forward.

Membership

The BC BRG membership is open to all state employees who are interested in promoting the values of the Black Community and the principles, and activities of the BRG. You do not have to be a member of the black community to join.
